DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 24 December 2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the inclusion of the limitation "monolithic form" creates a patentable distinction over the cited prior art. However, it is clear that either the crane structure supporting the rails or the fixed wing of an aircraft for which the rails are intended to be suspended, would clearly serve as a monolithic form.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-9, 12, 15-20, 23 and 26-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Defense Systems Daily ("DSD"). Specifically, refer to page 2, paragraph 6 for relevant disclosure. A supporting article (Defense Procurement Agency ("DPA")) provides pictorial support for the three-rail launcher disclosed in DSD.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 13, 14, 24 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the DSD and DPA articles referenced above. The articles disclose a three-rail launcher platform. But, the article does not disclose the composition of said platform. However, the selection of aluminum or a composite as the material of choice is well within the knowledge of one with ordinary skill in the art and amounts to an obvious engineering decision. At the time of the invention, the selection of such material would have been obvious to provide increased strength and decreased weight characteristics to the platform.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 10, 11, 21 and 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
